Mr Lummis

Ret

Dear Sir

I read an article in The Sunday Times, of you publishing a book of old songs. Being a lover of music myself, It brought back pleasant memories, of the night I had the pleasure of meeting you and your Daughter through "Miss Alice Gentle." at The Pasadena presentation of " "Carmen". If you do not recall the name, Miss Dot Bernard, I was the young lady who was the guest, of Miss Gentle In her dressing room, also we had the pleasure of taking you and your Daughter home, I was so impressed that evening and pleased by having, the pleasure of meeting such a charming "personality."

And every time, I read your name, in the papers. It recalls that pleasant evening. "My Best Wishes to you and your Daughter And would love the pleasure of your "Book of Old Songs." Thanking you Kindly Mr Lummis.

Sincerely
"Miss Dot Bernard"
